STREET ARTISTS PETITION

We, the undersigned, support the tradition of diverse artistic expression in public parks and sidewalks. We petition Boston Mayor Thomas M. Menino and Boston City Council:

- to acknowledge the First Amendment Rights, historical and cultural assets of street artists
- to stop the arbitrary and discretionary arrest, harassment and suppression of street artists
- to rescind archaic, gender bias, massive geographic restrictions and discretionary regulations
- to acknowledge the First Amendment Rights of all street artists to solicit and receive donations
- to stop the exclusive and discretionary control of Sam Adams Park, Downtown Crossing, Copley Square, Newbury Street and public spaces by private corporations and associations
